Boyd's Harness are well made.
—Get your Picture Frames at H. E. Denny's.

—Oranges only 25 cents per dozen at E. P. Hostetter's.

—Try our "cheap column" when you have anything to sell.

—Mrs. W. C. Cochran is visiting friends in Nebraska City.

—Grand-ma Denny is spending the week with her son, Hiram.

—Miss Susie Culp, of Kansas, is visiting her Uncle Johnathan Culp.

—Mrs. Russell Brown, of New Point, who has been seriously ill for some time, is now on a fair way for recovery.

—New and second hand Wrens and Buggies cheap at H. C. Schmidt's.

—John Curtis, living in the Richville district, is very low with pneumonia.

—Bottom farmers, address T. M. Hudgins, Forbes, for low rates of interest.

—As an orator T. S. Hinde is a howling success, even the making dogs howl.

—You will find something in the "cheap column" this week that will interest you.

—Fred Strogach, of New York city, is the guest of his uncle, Jake and Chris. Groves, of this city.

—Mrs. Workman left Tuesday for Monticello, Illinois, where she will visit her son, S. P. Jewell.

—If you want to trade corn at 20 cents per bushel, for sorghum molasses, see S. H. Whitmer, Oregon, Mo.

—Ed. Dobyns has been duly installed as deputy postmaster, and entered upon the duties of that position on Tuesday.

—A fine lot of extra Ben Davis apple trees for re-planting, for sale by N. F. Murray & Sons, Elm Grove, Holt County, Mo.

—The Kunkel Mills have shut down for the purpose of repairing and making valuable improvements to their machinery.

—Joe Cramer, on Tuesday last, while chopping wood, cut his foot very badly, severing three of his toes. He will be laid up for several weeks.

—Ben Davis apples are now selling at two dollars per bushel at St. Joseph. Surely there has not yet been an overproduction of this variety.

—Wiel Kunkel, at the mill, has fitted up rooms for a repair shop, and is now prepared to repair watches, clocks and jewelry and sewing machines.

—Seining for fish is prohibited from the first of this month until the first of May. Take notice and govern yourselves accordingly if you want to avoid trouble.

—Henry L. Alkire reached his sixtieth birthday on Saturday last, and his neighbors and friends gave him pleasant surprise in the way of a "big dinner" and congratulations.

—Hiram Hershberger is the new city treasurer. As Hiram is ignorant of the "ways that are dark and tricky that are vain," we feel sure in saying that our finances will be safe in his hands.

—We are glad indeed to learn that arrangements have been made by the Presbytery denomination here by which Rev. Roberts will occupy the pulpit here his entire time during the year.

—Nearly every day when the New Point hack comes in it brings a large bunch of game from George Williams, the champion duck-hunter of that place. One day last week he sent out 120 ducks and four brants.

—F. H. Rowley & Co., chicken buyers, will be at Forest City, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, April 5th, 6th and 7th, 1890, at the store of Emil Weber, where they will pay the highest cash market price for fowls of all descriptions.

—H. L. Price has returned from Hiram, Kansas, he will work at the painter's trade in this county, this summer. He is recommended by his Kansas patrons, as being a first-class house and ornamental painter and decorator. Anyone having work in his line of business will do well to address him at Oregon, Mo.

—H. L. Eads, of Mound City, is a practical watch maker and jeweler, having served a full apprenticeship with August Wetteroth, of St. Joseph, and comes fully equipped to repair your watches and jewelry in a first-class manner. He carries a full line of silverware, watches and jewelry, which is offered at fair living prices. No shoddy goods in his house.

—At the reception—"Why, May, I can't make out your dress out of your small income!" "Well, Bonnie, dear, the whole thing is told in five words: Kreek & Watson's low prices. They have just received their new spring stock of ladies' dress goods—the handsomest patterns, best goods and lowest prices ever made in Oregon."

—The citizens of Mound City have been considerably worked up lately over the discovery of considerable counterfeit money circulating in their midst. It is stated that on Friday two men, Lee Harmon, an itinerant jeweler, and McMillan, a barber, were arrested on the charge of passing bogus coin. Henry Dunham received a twenty dollar gold piece from one of them which proved to be bogus. McMillan had been released when the informant left, as no evidence was found against him. Several bogus coins of large denomination are said to be in the hands of the prosecuting attorney.

—Read the "cheap column" this week.

—Boyd's Harness are made of good Oak Leather.

—The Maitland school will close on the 11th inst.

—The genuine Sweet Navel Oranges at E. P. Hostetter's.

—The county board of equalization meets next Monday.

—Tom Rodmon is now a resident of Seattle, Washington.

—Sewing Machine Needles and Supplies for sale by H. E. Denny.

—Don't forget that Boyd will save you money on Buggies, Carts and Harness.

—Roland Hayes and family, of near Fortecue, have removed to Oklahoma.

—Ottie Curry has retired from the postoffice, and will farm the coming season.

—Jacob Book has been seriously ill with pneumonia, but at present is improving.

—A car load of potatoes was recently shipped to New Orleans, by F. W. Walker, of Corning.

—Mort Rogers and Frank Combs, of the Elm Grove school district, have removed to Nebraska.

—Rev. Warner has returned from a visit with relatives and friends in Bethany, Harrison county.

—Miss Nellie Collier has returned from Des Moines, Iowa, where she has been attending school.

—Rev. Keiser will preach at Benton church, next Sunday, at 11 a. m., and at Mayflower at 7:30 p. m.

—Two thousand large evergreens for sale at low prices, by N. F. Murray & Sons. Don't fail to see them.

—Go to Kreek & Watson's for your Groceries—A choice line, new and fresh for the lowest cash market prices.

—Miss McGie Tandy and Joseph A. Jenkins were married at the home of the bride in Stanbury, on the 20th ult.

—The United States court convenes in St. Joseph, next Monday, the 7th inst. There are but five criminals case docketed.

—It is reported that S. T. Lucas has about negotiated the purchase of the R. C. Glenn stock of furniture at Mound City.

—Rev. Irvine, of Mound City, has accepted a call to southern Indiana, and is about to remove to his new field of labor.

—A spirit of improvement seems to be general this spring, which we are glad to see. There is not an idle mechanic in our city.

—The teachers' summer institute will be held in this city, beginning July 21st. Prof. Carrington has been chosen to conduct the same.

—It is said that the C. B. & Q. will complete their road from Grant City to Rulo, via Maryville and Parnell, the coming season.

—Governor Francis has named B. O. Cowan, of this county, as a delegate to the Inter-state Stockmen's convention at Fort Worth, Texas.

—Mound City comes to the front again with another sensation. Monday last a prominent citizen received a cow-hiding from a lady of that place.

—Miss Emma Kallenbach and May Rodmond have returned to their homes in Craig, after a week's visit with Miss Emma's parents, near this city.

—We are sorry to learn that Judge Ward is confined to his house by reason of being kicked by a horse. His "underripin'" was considerably shattered.

—Dr. Bradley, of Maitland, has announced the position of surgeon with one of the leading railroad companies of the west, and has removed to Seattle, Washington.

—George McAdow, a confectioner at Mound City, has suddenly "turned up" missing. It is said local creditors are interested to the amount of $1000. We cannot believe that he left for the purpose of defrauding them.

—Bob Howell has finished repairing the grates in the north window of the jail. Bob did a good job, and guarantees that the prisoners will not be able to saw through them in twenty-four hours constant work, with good saws.

—Removal—Mrs. Mary Curry has removed her stock of millinery goods to the front room over Fitts store. Go and see her. Finest line of goods ever brought to Oregon. Every thing new and fresh; no old goods or styles. Prices the lowest.

—There will be special services at the Oregon Presbyterian church, Sabbath, the ordination and installation of Messrs. J. N. Manfies, as elder, and Alexander Van Buskirk, as deacon, will take place at 11 a. m., and Easter services at 7:30 p. m.

—See "ad" elsewhere in this issue of Public Administrator's sale of the property of Arthur E. Williams, deceased, which will take place at the residence of the late deceased, in Nodaway township, Saturday, April 15th, 1890. For terms etc., see bills.

—Dr. Foster Marshall, of Mound City, was in the city on business last week. The doctor very much resembles the general Carl Lohr, and as he perambulated the streets yesterday, was several times mistaken for that gentleman.—St. Joseph Herald.

—Mrs. Mary Minter, an old lady, aged 72 years, died at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Williams, residing on the Kyger farm, adjoining Oregon on the north. The cause of her death was dropsy. She was buried in the Oregon Cemetery, Sunday.

—E. S. McKnight, father of Robert McKnight, spent a few days here the first of the week in examining the Anselmet mill bought by the latter, and has gone to Hutchinson, Kansas, to procure funds for the improvement of the same. He expects to return soon to begin work on the mill. He proposes to make a No. 1 mill etc.

—"If it wasn't for two things I would leave you," said a well known lady of our city the other day to her husband after a little quarrel. "What are the two things?" he asked. "Why," she said, "you always buy your Boots and Shoes at Kreek & Watson's, and always take the children and I there to buy ours." They carry the finest line of Shoes for Ladies, gentlemen and children to be found in northwest Missouri.

—Stanbury has passed an electric light ordinance.

—Buy your Wall Paper of H. E. Denny.

—Largest stock in the county.

—You can buy oranges for 25 cents per dozen at E. P. Hostetter's.

—Miss Lulah Dobyns, and brother Lugh, were in St. Joseph, Saturday.

—Charles Graves, of Maitland, was in Oregon on business, Thursday of last week.

—For the Light Running Domestic—Best Sewing Machine made—See H. E. Denny.

—William C. Babb and wife, of the Walnut Grove district, have sold their farm to Brownlow Babb, and taken their departure for Oklahoma.

—Andrew Jackson, of St. Joseph, was called here this week by the serious illness of his brother, Doc, who is lying very low with pneumonia.

—Mrs. Tillie Shute has returned from St. Joseph, where she was called by the sickness of her niece, Mrs. Lona Holts, whom she reports as now convalescent.

—Blind to your own interests. That is the way to express it, when a man refuses to take advantage of the extraordinary opportunity to save money in buying goods from Kreek & Watson.

—The largest stock, latest styles and lowest prices for cash.

—A nine year old son of J. W. King, residing about three miles northwest of Oregon, fell in front of a stalk cutter, on Tuesday, and received a severe cut in the left thigh and some serious bruises on the back. Mr. King has recently moved here from Quitman.

—Rev. Roberts and Alfred Farlow met to discuss Christian Science at the Christian church, on Wednesday evening of last week. The verdict of the large audience was no doubt in favor of Mr. Roberts as opposed to Christian Science.

—List of letters remaining in the postoffice at Forest City, Missouri, unclaimed for during the month of March, 1890: S. P. Brown, Mirtle Crawford, Sarah Frances, Ross Gahringer, William H. Lewis, Charles E. Felt, George W. Felt, George W. Felt, Postmaster.

—The following parties from Oregon attended the Emma Juch English Opera Company's "Faust," with Emma Juch as Marguerite, at St. Joseph, on Wednesday evening: Charles Marsh, El. Montgomery, Guy Cummins, Frank Allen, Ira Pinkola, Chas. Eterroft, Clarence Moller, and Howard Browne.

—Our city election passed off with some interest, and although a spirited contest was waged for some of the offices, the best of feeling prevailed throughout the day. L. I. Moore was chosen mayor; C. W. Bartram, city marshal, and Henry Moller, collector. At the school election Messrs. Cummins and Watson were re-elected.

—Mrs. W. W. Price, who was taken to Lewisburg, Ohio, a few months ago in hopes of regaining her health, died in that city, last Sunday. Her remains were brought to this city, on Wednesday, and laid to rest in Nickell's Grove cemetery.

—A funeral sermon will be preached at the Nickell's Grove church next C. Wesley at three o'clock p. m.

—Local visitors will please report to the following superintendents of county W. C. T. —Elsewhere in this issue will be found the annual report of the recorder and expenditures of our city. From it it will be seen that our city's finances are in a very healthy condition, $504.76 being on hand in the treasury; $1041.34 was expended upon our streets, nearly one-half of the entire receipts. This is where the money should be expended, and we trust the board will continue in well-doing. Our city is to be congratulated on having so efficient a board.

—Homer Riggle, nephew of N. F. Murray, has just received notice to report for duty at Shaw's Botanical Garden, St. Louis, by April 1st, having been one of the successful candidates for a scholarship in that institution, which provides for six years' study and work, and for which each student receives pay, amounting, in the six years, to sixteen hundred and fifty dollars. This is a good opportunity for the young man to prepare himself for an honorable and useful life work, and for which he may thank the Missouri Horticultural Society.

—A. R. McKee, of Danville, Kentucky, who is well known in our county, and owner of a large tract of land in the northern part of our county, was a passenger on the train which was swept into the Ohio river, at Louisville, by a recent tornado. Mr. McKee was enroute for this city to attend a law suit now pending in our circuit court. We regret to learn of his untimely death. He was a most excellent gentleman, and had many friends here. He was a breeder of fine horses and the owner of the Harrocks Creek stock farm, near Danville, Kentucky.
